Borland

October 26,1923.

Dear May-Ethelyn:

Glad of a fine letter from you, looking like Old Times - and bridging back pretty well to them! For the Lord knows when I've heard from you before.

It is good to know that you are settled and comfortable in Alameda, and that Guy is at home more, and Carrollita developing so finely.

Thank you for your subscription to the Book of Spanish Songs, and for your promise to spread the gospel to Roma and Annie Laurie. It must have been fine to go down to Haywards and the old haunts.

I came back from Camulos the 25th of July, after an absence of most of a year, trying to gain back to some sort of strength. I am now getting stronger, though nothing to brag of. But I hope to keep on mending - and to be able to DO.

Turbese is over at Riverside for a few weeks just now, but stayed here and ran things during my long absence, and is here with me most of the time now - a marvellous comfort and help. Frank, her husband, is here also -a mighty fine boy.

Bertha and her husband (Justin E. Bush) live in San-Francisco, 527 Baker Street. I wish Guy would get orders to run down into this territory and would bring you and Carrollita along.

The books will be out in about a month, and yours will be sent you promptly.

With love and all good wishes,

CFL/R

Always your Friend,
